

Poems for the Handwriting for Snape & Well Show 2023

Reception & Nursery –

Wonderful words!

Year 1 and 2 –

Words are presents that we give to each other

You to your sister, me to my brother

Your friends to you, you to your friends

On and on and on, see, it never ends.

Michael Rosen

Year 3 and 4 –

Handwriting sometimes likes to be neat

(all on the line, like marching feet)

But sometimes it likes to mess around

(tripping and tumbling like a clown)

Sometimes it likes to drift and dream

(like a slow meandering stream)

Sometimes it wants to dip and to fly

(summertime swallows up in the sky)

Lois Rock

Year 5 & 6

Imagine a world with no paper,
No pencils, no pens and no ink,
No blackboards, no chalk,
No computers, in short, just
No way to record what you think.

Imagine you'd dreamed up a poem
So lovely you knew that you must
Recall it for ever.
Just what would you do?
You'd write, with your finger, in dust.
